On-line personality test

Your own i3 profile will give you

- Increased self awareness
- Encouraged self confidence
- Personal direction

We are all different so your i3 profile celebrates your uniqueness. No two i3 profiles are ever exactly the same. i3 measures your 7 instinctive indicators and provides you with the perfect starting point to any personal development journey. Your feedback is delivered in person by an accredited i3 profiler.

Group feedback and team building

An i3 dynamix session will give you

- Increased Social Awareness
- Greater Empathy
- Relationships with increased Trust
- Productivity & Bottom Line impact

Bringing relationship building to life! Teams are given feedback as a group and differences, strengths and opportunities are discussed. The interactive session leaves the delegates with clarity on why their team members do what they do and who should do it next time.

Individual improvement programmes

An i3 sustain programme will give you

- Increased Accountability
- Longer term Sustained Results
- Improved Communication
- The keys to Reach Your Potential
- Increased Responsibility

This is a powerful programme that puts knowledge into action, taking you through a series of modules with one of our i3 consultants. The modules can be adapted for personal improvement, early management or leadership development.
